HURFORD SALVI CARR

PROPERTY ADVISORS & DEVELOPMENT CONSULTANTS

In today's uncertain economic climate advice you can trust is more essential than ever

Hurford Salvi Carr are respected property advisors and development consultants covering the whole of Central London and beyond.

Our Insolvency Solutions Team offer advice and implement successful strategies for the disposal of every type of property from private family houses and apartments to blocks of flats (tenanted and vacant), properties for conversion and/or refurbishment, investment portfolios, development sites (both with and without planning consents) to all types of commercial premises – both vacant and let.

Our experience in handling insolvency matters and finding successful solutions pre-dates the recession of the 1990's when we were involved with high profile receiverships, liquidations and repossession work.

We work closely with The Bowen Partnership who are an independent professional firm of chartered surveyors and who are on the valuation panels of most leading banks and funding institutions.

As professional advisors we are committed to providing a personal service to each of our clients and finding an appropriate management solution. We maintain the highest standards of integrity and confidentiality in every aspect of our business.

We have a network of four offices located in the West End, Clerkenwell, the City and Docklands.
